

Professor of Art History, SCAD Hong Kong

Hong Kong

Application deadline: Sep 15, 2011

Kelly Evans

SCAD Hong Kong seeks candidates for full-time faculty positions in contemporary art history. Qualified candidates will have a Ph.D. in art history or a related field. Curatorial and exhibition experience with arts institutions, cultural arts programming, and artists throughout the region would be desirable. Successful candidates will contribute to the graduate and undergraduate curriculum devoted to contemporary art, and will teach core curriculum in the history of western art (Survey I and II, or 20th-century Art). The candidate will seek to develop new courses that capitalize on the campus location, and have demonstrated success in college-level teaching and expertise in contemporary art and its methodologies. Proven leadership skills and ability to work with students of diverse backgrounds is desirable.
