Postgraduate Study in London (Royal College of Arts)

Ana Pereira

RCA School of Humanities announces call for applications for Postgraduate study with bursaries for Academic Year 2012-13.

Located in the heart of London, the Royal College of Art offers 2-year Masters and full or part time Mphil/PhD programmes in Critical Writing in Art and Design, Curating Contemporary Art and History of Design (in collaboration with the V&A Museum). All programmes are taught by leading historians, curators and critics in close connection to the internationally renowned artists and designers of the Royal College of Art.

Open days are held in November and December, and the priority application deadline is January 2012, although applications are considered throughout the year. Bursaries, towards fees and living costs, are available on a competitive basis.

For further details or to book an open day place, visit
