York, Oct 01, 2013

Application deadline: May 7, 2013

Hanna Vorholt

University of York

Department of History of Art

Research Assistant

'Projections of Jerusalem in Europe'

Applications are invited for a research assistantship, as part of the major research project Projections of Jerusalem in Europe: A Monumental Network, funded by the European Research Council under the European Union's Seventh Framework Programme (FP7/2007-2013; ERC grant agreement n° 249466). The research project, conducted in partnership between the Hebrew University in Jerusalem and the University of York, undertakes to document monumental re-creations of Jerusalem in Europe and to analyse the concepts that underlie their making.

The successful candidate will be part of a team of scholars; take primary responsibility for documenting extant and lost Jerusalem monuments in England and the Low Countries; produce high quality publications on selected monuments and topics; participate in conferences and workshops; and provide other intellectual and administrative support for the project.

He/she will be based at the University of York, should have (or be near completion of) a PhD in history of art or a cognate discipline, have good knowledge of Latin, and be able to work efficiently as part of a team.

Informal inquiries about the post may be made to Dr Hanna Vorholt, email: hanna.vorholt@york.ac.uk.

The post is 75% of FTE, with a starting salary of £29,541 per annum (pro rata) on Grade 6 of the University's salary scales. The post is available from 1 October 2013 and is tenable for a fixed term until 30 April 2015.

Closing date: 7th May 2013
