Mio Wakita

New Research on 19th-Century Japanese Print Culture
Workshop

Friday, June 7, 2013, 2-6 pm

Location: Karl Jaspers Centre, Room 212, Voßstr. 2, Building 4400, 69115
Heidelberg, Germany

The international workshop "New Research on 19th-century Japanese Print Culture" aims to address critical aspects of and new concepts for Japanese print culture of the nineteenth century. Four international specialists will speak on ukiyo-e, shunga, and photography, and encourage productive discussions across boundaries of genre, media, and institution.

Speakers will be Matthi Forrer (Leiden, Ishibashi Visiting Professor of Japanese Art History), Maki Fukuoka (Leeds), Doris Croissant (Heidelberg), and Mio Wakita (Heidelberg).

The event is free, and everyone is welcome to attend.
