Drawing Institute Morgan-Menil Fellowship 2015-16

The Drawing Institute and the Menil Drawing Institute, Houston, will award one postdoctoral fellowship of four to six months to support research projects on some aspect of the history, theory, interpretation, or cultural meaning of drawing throughout the history of art. Preference will be given to projects that would benefit from the resources of the Morgan Library & Museum and the Menil Collection.

Requirements

The Morgan-Menil Fellow is expected to spend part of the fellowship period in residence at the Morgan Library & Museum and another part at the Menil Collection.

The Fellow will make an informal presentation on her/his research during the time of the fellowship at both institutions.

Stipend: $30,000 for 6 months (pro-rated for shorter period), plus travel allowance.

General Information

Health insurance is not provided.

The Fellow is expected to make his/her own travel and housing arrangements.

For foreign applicants, non-financial assistance with procuring a visa is provided.

Fellowship is non-renewable.

Application Procedure:

Applicants are asked to submit the following:

- a cover letter addressing the applicant's area of interest
- a curriculum vitae
- a research proposal (maximum 3 pages, double-spaced) specifying what the applicant wishes to accomplish during the fellowship period. (If applicable, the proposal should detail how the project would benefit from the resources of the Morgan and the Menil)
- a writing sample, in English
- two letters from academic or professional references in support of the proposed project

All application materials must be in English and should be submitted online at:

<http://www.themorgan.org/drawing-institute/application>

Letters of reference should be emailed directly to: drawinginstitute@themorgan.org.

Application Deadline: November 10, 2014

Incomplete or late applications will not be considered.

Successful applicants will be notified by February 15, 2015.
