Ex Voto: Votive Images Across Cultures

Thursday, April 28, 2011 – Friday, April 29, 2011

An ex-voto is a votive offering to a saint or deity, given as a token of gratitude for a miracle performed. It is, in its essence, a tangible celebration of an ephemeral event, the material commemoration or expectation of supernatural activity. The impulse to create such objects is global and trans-historical. Examples range from antiquity to the present, from the Himalayan slopes to the forests of South America. Ex-votos represent an intimate act of religious devotion that bridges cultural divisions.

RSVP required to all events.
