

Negotiating Art (London, 1-2 Apr 16)

London, The National Gallery, Sainsbury Wing Lecture Theatre, Apr 1-02, 2016

Barbara Pezzini

Negotiating art: Dealers and museums 1855-2015

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME - registration now open

Friday 1 April

10am Registration

10.30am ALAN CROOKHAM (National Gallery), HELEN REES-LEAHY (University of Manchester) and JEREMY HOWARD (Colnaghi and University of Buckingham), Researching the Art Market: Archives and Contexts

PANEL ONE: SHAPING THE COLLECTION 1

Chair: SUSANNA AVERY-QUASH, The National Gallery

11.15am ELIZABETH HEATH (National Portrait Gallery/University of Sussex)

A professional and personal touch: George Scharf and his interaction with dealers in developing the National Portrait Gallery's collection

11.35am BARBARA PEZZINI (National Gallery/University of Manchester)

Agents, mediators and direct suppliers: London art dealers and the National Gallery 1855-1904

11.55am ALEXIS CLARK (University of Southern California)

A Conflicted Collaboration: Ambroise Vollard, Léonce Bénédict, and the Caillebotte Bequest

12.15pm Discussion

12.45pm Lunch (not provided)

Opportunity to visit the National Gallery Research Centre to see items from the Agnew's Archive. Places are limited and subject to advance booking.

PANEL TWO: SHAPING THE COLLECTION 2

Chair: FLAMINIA GENNARI SANTORI, Gallerie d'Arte Antica di Roma

2pm LUKAS CLADDERS (Basel Museum/University of Heidelberg)

The Kunsthistorisches Museum's failed attempt to acquire Duccio's Gualino Madonna, 1200-1223

2.20pm INGE REIST (The Frick Collection)

The Frick After Frick: Trustee Acquisitions and the Art Market

2.40pm ALEX TAYLOR (Tate)

British dealers and American art at the Tate Gallery

3pm Discussion

3.30pm Tea/coffee break

PANEL THREE: DEALER-MUSEUM INTERACTION

Chair: MARK WESTGARTH, University of Leeds

4pm discussion panel with: MICHAEL TOLLEMACHE (Society of London Art Dealers), JULIAN AGNEW (Julian Agnew Fine Art Ltd.), CLIFF SCHORER (Thos. Agnew's Ltd.) Speaker tbc

5pm Discussion

5.30pm Close of Day One

5.30-6.30pm Reception

Saturday 2 April

10am Registration

PANEL FOUR: DEALERS AS EXPERTS

Chair: LYNN CATTERSON, Columbia University

10.15am IMOGEN TEDBURY (National Gallery/Courtauld Institute)

Difficult Dealings: Robert Langton Douglas and the National Gallery

10.35am CATHERINE SCALLEN (Case Western Reserve University)

Bode and Duveen: Authority, Expertise, and the Art Market

10.55am FRANCES FOWLE (Scottish National Gallery/University of Edinburgh)

Dubious Dealings and issues of connoisseurship: David Croal Thomson and the curious case of M. Mégrét and the 'The Haybinders'

11.15am Tea/coffee break

11.45am ALISON CLARKE (National Gallery/University of Liverpool)

'The air of connoisseurship': The National Gallery versus Agnew's

12.05pm PAUL TUCKER (Università degli Studi di Firenze)

Charles Fairfax Murray (1849-1919): his Relations with Public Museums and with the Dealer Thomas Agnew and Sons

12.25pm ANDREA MEYER (Technische Universität Berlin)

On the Overlapping of Curating and Dealing. The Foundation of the German Museums Association in 1917

12.45pm Discussion

1.15pm Lunch (not provided)

Opportunity to visit the National Gallery Research Centre to see items from the Agnew's Archive. Places are limited and subject to advance booking.

PANEL FIVE: CREATING A MARKET

Chair: CHRISTIAN HUEMER, Getty Research Institute

2.30pm MORNA O'NEILL (Wake Forest University)

Good Business: Hugh Lane and his Museums

2.50pm EUNMIN LIM (University of York)

Murray Marks and Wilhelm von Bode's Collaboration for the Kaiser Friedrich Museum: Cataloguing, Collecting and Displaying Italian Renaissance Bronzes, c. 1888-1913

3.10pm MEGAN REDDICKS (Detroit Institute of Art)

Das sehr interessante Bild von Kandinsky: Ferdinand Möller and the Detroit Institute of Arts

3.30pm Discussion

4pm Concluding remarks: speakers tbc

4.15pm Close of Day Two

Negotiating Art conference page with e-ticketing link:

<http://www.nationalgallery.org.uk/whats-on/calendar/negotiating-art-dealers-and-museums-1855-2015>

Tickets: £80 full/£70 senior/£65 NG members/£25 students

Reference:

CONF: Negotiating Art (London, 1-2 Apr 16). In: ArtHist.net, Jan 12, 2016 (accessed May 12, 2025), <<https://arthist.net/archive/11943>>.