Poetics of the Algorithm: Narrative, the Digital, and 'Unidentified' Media, 16-18 June 2016, University of Liège (ULg), Salle des Professeurs, Place du XX Août, 4000 Liège, Belgium

Poetics of the Algorithm: Narrative, the Digital, and 'Unidentified' Media is an international and bilingual (English and French) conference organized by the ACME Research Group and hosted by the University of Liège (Belgium), from June 16 to June 18, 2016. It focuses on interactive fiction, apps, digital comics, games, e-literature and other emerging, 'new' media. The conference will host workshops, roundtable discussions, panels, and presentations of papers.

The conference does not require advance registration (except the WREKshop). It is a free event and completely open to the public. All practical information is available on the website: <https://poeticsofthealgorithm.wordpress.com/>
