

History of Photography – Special Issue

Jennifer Roberts, Oxford

The latest issue of History of Photography is now available online. This special issue, 'Glocal' Photography, contains the following articles:

Editorial – Free Online Access

Jan Baetens

Original Articles

Nationalities and Universalism in the Early Historiography of Photography (1843-1857)

François Brunet

The (De)Construction of National Photography in Minor Photographies: The Case of Marcel Mariën

Mieke Bleyen and Hilde Van Gelder

Photographs without Frontiers: Rauschenberg, Warhol, Hamilton and Photography
Graham Smith

The Empire Looks Back: Subverting the Imperial Gaze
Sara Stevenson

Robert Doisneau and the Making of a Universal Cliché
Nina Lager Vestberg

Le renouveau des 'Voyages de photographes' à l'heure de la globalisation
Danièle Méaux

John Edward Saché in India
Stéphanie Roy Bharath

Reviews

Kim Timby, Kristina Wilson, Danièle Méaux, Cerys Wilson, Felicity J. Colman and Alistair Rider

Find out more at <http://www.informaworld.com/thph>

Reference:

TOC: History of Photography - Special Issue. In: ArtHist.net, May 10, 2011 (accessed Dec 16, 2025), <<https://arthist.net/archive/1358>>.