Building Word Image: Printing Architecture 1800-1950

This Special Collection of Architectural Histories, the EAHN Journal, opens up the field of word-image relationships to architectural history by exploring the rising coexistence of the graphic and the verbal in the public dissemination of the built in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. Contributions examine printed media such as newspapers, journals, pamphlets, books, manuscripts or catalogues.

Guest Editors: Anne Hultzsch and Catalina Mejia Moreno
