

Terra Summer Residency, Giverny

Giverny, France, Jun 5–Aug 4, 2017

Application deadline: Jan 15, 2017

Lucy Pike

The Terra Summer Residency brings together doctoral scholars of American Art and emerging artists worldwide for a nine-week residential program in the historic village of Giverny, France.

The program encourages independent work while providing seminars and mentoring by senior scholars and artists to foster reflection and debate.

Candidates worldwide can apply.

Applicants must be either:

- A visual artist with a master's degree or its equivalent at the time of application. Preference is given to applicants who have completed their degree within the past five years.
- A doctoral candidate researching American art and visual culture or its role in a context of international artistic exchange prior to 1980. Candidates at all stages of doctoral research and writing are welcome to apply.

In addition to a stipend, fellows receive on-site lodging, use of working facilities, and lunches for the duration of the residency.
