

Postdoctoral Research Fellowships in Art History (South Africa)

Suzanne Human

There is a wonderful research opportunity at the University of the Free State, Bloemfontein, South Africa for excellent Art Historians who have earned a Ph D in the last ten years. The idea is that he or she contribute to research at the University by finishing a book or several research articles for the credit of this university. It is worth R 200 000,00 p. a. and one can make an adequate living on that in South Africa.

POSTDOCTORAL RESEARCH FELLOWSHIPS AVAILABLE

The University of the Free State (UFS) is seeking 10 exceptional research fellows to conduct full-time postdoctoral research in any discipline. The value of the fellowship is R 200,000.00 per annum renewable for a maximum of three (3) years, to the most accomplished young and emerging researchers.

General selection considerations include the following:

1. Successful applicants will demonstrate exceptional academic performance and intellectual potential. 2. The selected cohort will reflect the University's equity and diversity imperatives, including those for gender, racial/cultural and intellectual diversity. 3. Successful applicants will demonstrate potential to contribute to the creation of knowledge in their future academic career, including person-embodied knowledge in the form of postgraduate research supervision. 4.

Minimum requirement a PhD in the last 10 years

5. Postdoctoral fellow to commence fellowship by 01 August 2011 or soon thereafter.

Application deadline: 30 June 2011
