

PhD Bursary – University of Genoa

University of Genoa - Italy

Application deadline: Jun 13, 2017

Prof.Dr. Maria Clelia Galassi

The University of Genoa's PhD course in the STUDY AND VALORISATION OF THE HISTORICAL, ARTISTIC-ARCHITECTURAL AND ENVIRONMENTAL HERITAGE offers a three-year fully-funded PhD bursary for students to pursue studies for a PhD and who have obtained a Master Degree from a foreign University.

Number of grants reserved: 1

Annual gross amount of the grant: € 13.638,47.

Comparative assessment procedure: qualifications/publications and exam (written test and interview)

Research themes: History of Europe in medieval, modern and contemporary age in its different expressions (e.g. political-institutional history, history of territory, maritime history, gender studies, military, cultural and religious history); interaction amongst social, political, economic phenomena and communication through artistic forms; the study of the artistic and historical heritage and architectural artefacts (e.g. iconological studies; analysis of technical processes in defining problems relating to historical-artistic and architectural artefacts; methodologies for the knowledge and preservation of the cultural heritage; analysis of the artistic object according to its formal components and in relation with the territory).

For further information:

<http://www.studenti.unige.it/postlaurea/dottorati/XXXIII/IT/>

prof.Maria Clelia Galassi: mcgalassi@lettere.unige.it

Reference:

STIP: PhD Bursary - University of Genoa. In: ArtHist.net, May 1, 2017 (accessed Sep 21, 2025), <<https://arthist.net/archive/15389>>.