SCHOOL OF ART HISTORY, UNIVERSITY OF ST ANDREWS - TEMPORARY ASSOCIATE LECTURERS (2 POSTS)

Salary: £32,004 per annum pro rata

Start Date: 1 September or as soon as possible thereafter, Fixed term, 1 September 2017 – 30 June 2018

We wish to appoint two temporary Associate Lecturers within the School of Art History. We seek motivated colleagues committed to the delivery of high quality teaching within any area of art or architectural history before c. 1800. We may consider candidates whose specialisms lie after 1800, but are nevertheless willing to lecture first-year students on topics in the period c. 1200-1800. Effective communication skills are essential. The successful candidates will be able to deliver research-led teaching at honours level (involving third- and fourth-year students), while also making accessible contributions to our first-year (AH1001, AH1003) lecture programme and running seminars for team-taught MLitt. modules.

These colleagues will also be required to undertake minor administrative tasks, and to sit on committees and working groups, both within the School and as representatives of Art History in the University broadly.

We encourage applicants to view the Further Particulars and apply online at:
