A Call for Papers

The ACC JOURNAL is published biennially and contains a selection of scholarly papers given at the symposia, articles resulting from grant-sponsored research, and contributions submitted by independent scholars. The Journal is currently seeking submissions for Journal XX. Papers considered for publication in the ACC Journal must be submitted by January 12, 2018.

Interested applicants are invited to review the guidelines listed on the Journal page of the American Ceramic Circle website (www.americanceramiccircle.org/journal.html). For further details, please contact Dr. Vanessa Sigalas, Chairman and Managing Editor, American Ceramic Circle Journal, at journal@americanceramiccircle.org.

About the American Ceramic Circle:

THE AMERICAN CERAMIC CIRCLE (ACC) was founded in 1970 as a non-profit educational organization committed to the study and appreciation of ceramics. Its purpose is to promote scholarship and research in the history, use, and preservation of ceramics of all kinds, periods, and origins.

The current active membership is composed of ceramics enthusiasts from many walks of life, including museum professionals, collectors, institutions, auction house professionals, and dealers in ceramics. Member interest is focused on post-Medieval pottery and porcelain of Europe, Asian ceramics of all periods, and ceramics made, used, or owned in North America.
