Researches on Archaeology, Antiquity and Early Middle Ages (Rome, 5-7 Feb 18)

Rome, Pontificio Istituto di Archeologia Cristiana, 05.–07.02.2018
Eingabeschluss : 06.10.2017

Chiara Cecalupo

Researches on Christian Archaeology, Late Antiquity and Early Middle Ages

The PhD students of the Pontificio Istituto di Archeologia Cristiana promote the International Conference Researches of Christian Archaeology, Late Antiquity and Early Middle Ages, in order to stimulate the discussion about ongoing or recently concluded doctoral researches.
The conference will be an important moment of exchange and reflection between researchers of different branches and nationalities, in connection with the interdisciplinary and international character of the Pontificio Istituto di Archeologia Cristiana since its foundation, with the aim of disseminate new studies and stimulate researches on new topics.
The researches will concern literary, historical and archaeological issues concerning the period from the 3rd to the 10th century, according to the single geographic peculiarities.

Chiara Cecalupo, chiaracecalupo@gmail.com

Quellennachweis:
CFP: Researches on Archaeology, Antiquity and Early Middle Ages (Rome, 5-7 Feb 18). In: ArtHist.net, 13.07.2017. Letzter Zugriff 13.11.2026. <https://arthist.net/archive/16011>.