SENSELESS RESIDENCY 2017-2018, curated by Cose Cosmiche

ARTHUR CRAVAN FOUNDATION Milan

WHAT

The Arthur Cravan Foundation announces a residency program and provides a place for developing and working on projects deemed to be "senseless": beyond the good common sense, standards, norms and normalizations (conscious or unconscious) of the artistic and intellectual production of the time... of this time.

During the residency it will be possible to develop senseless projects / ideas / actions / timeouts that require space and time alternative to the usual rhythms of production / performance and use / consumption. A place where it is possible to implement a state of acceleration or deceleration.

WHO

The residencies are open to artists, researchers, scientists, philosophers, curators, critics, writers, directors, poets... There are no restrictions regarding nationality or age.

HOW AND HOW LONG

Senseless Residence offers lodging without meals or travel expenses.

The residency period may range from a minimum of 3 days (particularly suitable for those who already live in Milan) to a maximum of 10 days. If necessary to the project, the residency period may be used as two or more separate stays. The space provided for the residency is a studio flat (25 sq. meters) fully equipped with bathroom and kitchen for a convenient stay in Milan's Chinatown. The residence accommodation is not equipped as a work space. The residency is also open to groups but the space is suitable for a maximum occupancy of 2 persons (1 bed + sofa bed). At the conclusion of the residency, a public presentation event is required, in the form most suitable for the 'researcher' in residence.
