Archives of American Art Journal 56.2 (fall 2017)

Supported by the Dedalus Foundation, this issue features new research on the influential modernist artist, writer, editor, and teacher Robert Motherwell (1915-1991). This issue also introduces a new section of the journal dedicated to living artists' interventions in the Archives.

The longest-running scholarly journal devoted to the history of American art, the AAAJ aims to showcase new approaches to and out-of-the-box thinking about primary sources. It contains both commissioned and peer-reviewed research articles that engage with the vast holdings of the Smithsonian's Archives of American Art.

To explore current and back issues of the journal, please go to www.press.uchicago.edu/ucp/journals/journal/aaa.html

The University of Chicago Press website includes information regarding subscriptions and submissions. Potential authors are encouraged to discuss their research and manuscripts by writing to SheehanT@si.edu.
