ETH Zurich, Institute for the History and Theory of Architecture (gta)

The Doctoral Program in History and Theory of Architecture at the Department of Architecture, ETH Zurich runs since October 2012. The program's focus is on the history and theory of architecture and urbanism in a wider context of cultural history, including the history and theory of art, science and technology. We are offering:

2 PhD positions in the Doctoral Program in History and Theory of Architecture

We are looking for junior researchers with a background in history and theory of architecture and art or architects with research experience. The selected candidates will be enrolled at ETH Zurich. The position will start on October 1, 2018 and is available for a duration of 3 years.

The candidate should have a diploma or a master's degree acquired at university level in architecture, history of art or related fields.

For further information about the program, the open positions and our department, please refer to the FAQ at <http://doctoral-program.gta.arch.ethz.ch/stellenangebote/2-doctoral-students> and visit our websites (doctoral-program.gta.arch.ethz.ch, gta.arch.ethz.ch and arch.ethz.ch).
