

Terra Summer Residency, Giverny

Giverny, France, Jun 4–Aug 3, 2018

Deadline: Jan 15, 2018

Lucy Pike, Terra Foundation for American Art

The Terra Summer Residency brings together doctoral scholars of American Art and emerging artists worldwide for a nine-week residential program in Giverny, France. The program encourages independent work while providing seminars and mentoring by senior scholars and artists to foster reflection and debate.

In addition to a stipend, fellows receive on-site lodging, use of working facilities, and lunches for the duration of the residency.

Candidates worldwide can apply. Applicants must be either:

- A visual artist with a master's degree or its equivalent at the time of application.
- A doctoral candidate researching American art and visual culture or its role in a context of international artistic exchange prior to 1980.

For more information about the program, eligibility criteria, application procedure, please visit the Terra Foundation website:
