

Roaring 1920s in Russia: Art, Design, Architecture (London, 15 Feb–22 Mar 18)

Dorich House Museum, London, Feb 15–Mar 22, 2018

Dr. Natalia Murray

GRAD-Dorich House Joint Lecture Programme

GRAD is delighted to invite you for a series of talks by the leading specialists in Russian art, film and fashion in the UK, which is organised in collaboration with Dorich House.

This is a unique opportunity to have a private tour of Dorich House Museum, learn about the cultural scene during the 1920s in Russia.

"Roaring 1920s in Russia: Art, Design, Architecture"

Programme of talks:

15 February - Professor Ian Christie – Making the movies Soviet: new direction in 1920s Russian film.

1 March - Dr Djurdja Bartlett - Soviet Fashion in the 1920s: Fusion of Socialism and Art Deco

22 March - Professor Christina Lodder - New Buildings for a New Society

All talks will be pre-seeded by the tour of the house which will start at 6.30 pm. (talks start at 7 pm).

Tickets can be booked by following this link.
<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/roaring-1920s-in-russia-art-design-architecture-tickets-41333001119>

The price (£8 and £6 concessions) includes tour of the house (usual price £5), a glass of wine and a lecture.

The address is: Dorich House Museum, 67 Kingston Vale, London SW15 3RN

Tel +44 (0)20 8417 5515

Bookings & Enquiries: info@grad-london.com

Reference:

ANN: Roaring 1920s in Russia: Art, Design, Architecture (London, 15 Feb-22 Mar 18). In: ArtHist.net, Jan 16, 2018 (accessed Apr 8, 2026), <<https://arthist.net/archive/17110>>.