ARS GRAPHICA is an international non-profit association for the promotion and the appreciation of the graphic arts. Its focus is on prints, drawings, photography, graphic design, illustrated books and artist's books and its membership comprises a wide range of graphic art enthusiasts, including professionals, specialists, students and amateurs.

Our missions are:

- To create an international community of graphic art enthusiasts
- To serve as a platform for the exchanges of ideas & debates
- To provide meeting & networking opportunities for our members
- To organize international events (workshops, symposiums, forums, meetings), as well as local visits arranged through our various satellites
- To share current news about opportunities, issues and events
- To promote the creation, preservation & conservation of graphic art
