Post-doctoral Research Fellowship at the Henry Moore Institute

The Henry Moore Institute is a world-recognised centre for the study of sculpture in the heart of Leeds. An award-winning exhibitions venue, research centre, library and sculpture archive, the Institute hosts a year-round programme of exhibitions, conferences, lectures, research, and publications that aim to expand the understanding and scholarship of historical and contemporary sculpture.

The Institute invites applications for a two-year fellowship, beginning in Spring 2018. Based at the Henry Moore Institute in Leeds, the Post-doctoral Fellow's research focus should be pre-twentieth-century, paying particular attention to the ways in which history is engaged with in the present. The Post-doctoral Research Fellowship is funded by the Henry Moore Foundation's Grants Programme. The successful Fellow will receive a grant of £21,000 per annum, for two years, payable quarterly. This grant is to cover living and all research associated expenses.

Fellowship Specifications:

- The Post-doctoral Research Fellow will work on publishing a book based on their doctoral research.
- The Research Fellow will attend Henry Moore Institute events, providing additional academic response and feedback to research and exhibition development.
- The Research Fellow will deliver at least two academic papers at conferences / universities / museums relating to the Fellow's own research.
- The Research Fellow will provide regular six-month updates to the Head of Research, the post-doctoral Fellow's supervisor for the duration of the fellowship.
- The Fellow will be expected to be based at the Henry Moore Institute, for a minimum of two days per week.

If you have any enquiries please contact Kirstie Gregory (Research Coordinator at the Henry Moore Institute) by email: kirstie.gregory@henry-moore.org
