(Re-)Forming Sculpture is a two-day international conference organised by the Doctoral and Early Career Research Network on behalf of the Association for Art History. This Summer Symposium hopes to re-consider the boundaries and hierarchies of sculpture within art history, broadening how it is understood in term of its medium, form, materiality, and cultural significance. Taking place on Tuesday 26 & Wednesday 27 June 2018, (Re-)Forming Sculpture is held between The Hepworth Wakefield and the School of Fine Art, History of Art and Cultural Studies, University of Leeds. It will highlight current doctoral and early career research in the field of sculpture, within its widest art historical remits and looks to unite the academic and curatorial disciplines of sculpture studies. Summer Symposium is kindly supported by the Association for Art History, The Hepworth Wakefield, the University of Leeds, the Paul Mellon Centre for Studies in British Art, and the Henry Moore Foundation.
