

Cultures of Surveillance (London 29 Sep - 1 Oct 2011)

UCL (University College London), Gower St., London, Sep 29–Oct 1, 2011

Dr. Jann Matlock

“Cultures of Surveillance: An Interdisciplinary Conference”

at University College London (UCL)

Thursday 29 September, Friday 30 September, and Saturday 1 October 2011

in The Film Studies Space: The Centre for the Cultural History of the Moving Image

De Young Lecture Theatre and Anatomy Theatre

Medical Sciences and Anatomy Building, UCL, Gower Street, London WC1E 6BT

Keynote Lectures by Professor Tom Gunning, University of Chicago (Thursday, 6 p.m.)

and Professor Simon Cole, University of California, Irvine (Friday, 1:30 p.m.)

Registration is now open: <http://www.autopsiesgroup.com/registration.html>

THE CONFERENCE IS OPEN TO THE GENERAL PUBLIC

The provisional programme is online here: <http://www.autopsiesgroup.com/events.html>

For further information, write deadobjects@gmail.com

The conference is sponsored by

UCL Graduate School, UCL FIGS, UCL SELCS, and UCL Research Challenges

Follow us on Twitter at @cultofsurv and on Facebook (Cultures of Surveillance) at <http://www.facebook.com/pages/Cultures-of-Surveillance/167999413265074>

Reference:

CONF: Cultures of Surveillance (London 29 Sep - 1 Oct 2011). In: ArtHist.net, Sep 19, 2011 (accessed Mar 15, 2026), <<https://arthist.net/archive/1862>>.