

Cities in Crisis (Rome, 6–7 Sep 18)

Bibliotheca Hertziana – Max Planck Institute for Art History (Rome, Italy), Sep 6–07, 2018

Danielle Abdon

Cities in Crisis: Emergency Measures in Architecture and Urbanism, 1400-1700

*This event will be live streamed at <https://bit.ly/2BY40IK>

Thursday, September 6, 2018

8.00 a.m.

Tristan Weddigen

Bibliotheca Hertziana

Welcome

Danielle Abdon and Margaret Bell

Bibliotheca Hertziana, Temple University; University of California—Santa Barbara, Kunsthistorisches Institut in Florenz

Introduction

I. Crisis Architecture Today

8.15

Esther Charlesworth

Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology

Keynote

9.30 Break

10.30

Walking Tour of Rome with Stalker

(Meeting Point: Piramide Metro Station)

13.30 Break

II. Urban Crises: Now and Then

Moderator: Morgan Ng

14.30

Philine Helas

Bibliotheca Hertziana

"...per Roma l'acqua sua spandendo": The floods of the Tiber during the XV and XVI centuries

15.30 Break

III. Architectures of Displacement

Respondent: Fabrizio Nevola

16.00

Iacopo Benincampi

Università di Roma-Sapienza

The 'New' City of Cervia: An Urban Deal between Public Health, Industrial Activities and Social Emergency

Danielle Abdon

Bibliotheca Hertziana, Temple University

From Tents to Urban Ornaments: Sheltering the Local and Foreign Poor in Early Modern Venice

Maria Teresa Gigliozzi

Università di Macerata

In fieri: The Continuous Adaptation of Norcia to the Seismic Activity over the Centuries

Friday, September 7, 2018

IV. Urban Control in Times of Crisis (Part I)

Respondent: Gauvin Alexander Bailey

9.00

Anita Ruso

Sveučilišta u Zagrebu

The Republic of Dubrovnik after 1667: Strategies for Rebuilding the City

Nuno Grancho

DINÂMIA' CET – IUL

The Sieges of Diu and the Architecture and Urbanism of the Colonial City

10.20 Break

V. Urban Control in Times of Crisis (Part II)

Respondent: Gauvin Alexander Bailey

10.50

Narciss M. Sohrabi

Université Paris Ouest-Nanterre-La Défense

Emergent New Julfa: Emergency Measures in the Crisis Architecture or Socio-Cultural Resistance in the Early Modern Urbanism of Iran

Kristen Strehle

Kunsthistorisches Institut in Florenz

Inquisition Architecture in the Kingdom of Aragón and its Territories: Painted Petitions in the

Aljafería of Zaragoza and the Steri of Palermo

12.30 Break

VI. Disease and Hospitality

Respondent: Ann Carmichael

13.30

Britta Hentschel

Universität Liechtenstein

Crisis and Control: Keeping Tabs on the Urban Development in Early Modern France

Isabel Ruiz Garnelo

Universitat de València

The Insufficient Hospitality in Early Modern Rome: The Cases of the Crown of Aragon

Darka Bilić

Centar Cvito Fisković

Plague Control Measures in Early Modern Split and Distinctive Role of its Lazaretto

15.30 Break

VII. Final Discussion: Urban Crises from a Historical Perspective

16.00

Gauvin Alexander Bailey, Ann Carmichael, Esther Charlesworth, and Fabrizio Nevola

Reference:

ANN: Cities in Crisis (Rome, 6-7 Sep 18). In: ArtHist.net, Sep 5, 2018 (accessed Apr 7, 2026), <<https://arthist.net/archive/18750>>.