

2019 Getty Library Research Grant

Getty Research Institute, Los Angeles

Application deadline: Oct 15, 2018

Kathleen Salomon, Getty Research Institute

Getty Library Research Grants provide partial, short-term support to researchers of all nationalities whose projects demonstrate a compelling need to use Getty Research Institute materials, and whose place of residence is more than 80 miles from the Getty Center in Los Angeles.

In addition to the open call for applications relating to projects utilizing any specific area of the GRI's collections, several focused grants will be awarded in the following areas of study:

- Research related to the modern commercial art market, Los Angeles modern architecture, or design.
- Research in the area of 18th-century German art, particularly as it relates to the religious, philosophical, and aesthetic contextualization of the Romantic movement.
- Research that utilizes the Conservation Collection, specialized research materials related to the preservation and conservation of material cultural heritage.

Applications for the 2019 Getty Library Research Grants are now available online at http://www.getty.edu/foundation/initiatives/residential/library_research_grants.html

The deadline to submit an application is October 15, 2018.
