

Research Fellowships, Ryerson Image Centre, Toronto

Application deadline: Nov 15, 2018

Thierry Gervais, Toronto

Ryerson Image Centre (Toronto)

Application deadline: 15 Nov. 2018

The Ryerson Image Centre is once again pleased to offer four fellowships for research related to photography:

The Nadir Mohamed Postdoctoral Fellowship

$10,000 (for candidates holding a PhD)

The Doina Popescu Fellowship

$5,000 (for candidates holding or working toward a PhD)

The Howard Tanenbaum Fellowship

$2,000 (for candidates holding or working toward a Master's)

The Elaine Ling Fellowship

$2,000 (for candidates holding or working toward a Master's)

Research fellows have the opportunity to study select areas of the RIC's photography collections first-hand. These include the acclaimed Black Star Collection of photo-reportage, with over a quarter-million prints spanning the 20th century; an historic and fine art photography collection; and several archives devoted to the life and work of a diverse group of photographers, including Werner Wolff, Jo Spence, Wendy Snyder MacNeil and the Berenice Abbott Collection.

We also offer access to the Ryerson University Library Archives/Special Collection, which includes additional important resources related to photography, including the archive of Kodak Canada.

Applications must be sent to Thierry Gervais via email at rverbin@ryerson.ca no later than November 15, 2018 by 5:00 p.m. EST.

<https://ryersonimagecentre.ca/media/uploaded/Fellowship-Guidelines-2019-FA.pdf>

Reference:

STIP: Research Fellowships, Ryerson Image Centre, Toronto. In: ArtHist.net, Sep 30, 2018 (accessed Oct 19, 2024), <<https://arthist.net/archive/19074>>.