

Church Monuments 32 (2017)

Sophie Oosterwijk, University of St Andrews

The 2017 issue of the peer-reviewed international journal Church Monuments has just been published,

Church Monuments 32 (2017) - contents:

Editorial

List of Contributors

The Medieval Wooden Tomb Effigies at Little Baddow (Essex) (Nigel Saul)

A Lost 'Double-decker' Cadaver Monument from Terrington St Clement (Norfolk) in Context (Sally Badham and Simon Cotton)

Pray for my Child: the Mansell and Aubrey Ledgerstone Memorials at Llantridddy (Madeleine Gray)

'The Decadent Art of the Royleys': The Shirley Monuments at Breedon on the Hill (Leicestershire), a Case Study (Moirra Ackers)

After 1587: A Flemish Funerary Connection to Mary Queen of Scots (James Stevens Curl)

Ledger Slabs with Architectural Patterns in Somerset Churches (Desmond Donovan)

Nativity Scenes on Gravestones in County Louth, Ireland (Harold Mytum)

There are also one review article and 21 book reviews.

For abstracts and further information about the journal and The Church Monuments Society, see www.churchmonumentsociety.org.

Reference:

TOC: Church Monuments 32 (2017). In: ArtHist.net, Oct 8, 2018 (accessed Apr 7, 2026), <<https://arthist.net/archive/19127>>.