

Cultural Literacy & Cosmopolitan Conviviality (Lisbon, 9–11 May 19)

Lisbon, Faculty of Human Sciences, Universidade Católica Portuguesa, May 9–11, 2019

Deadline: Nov 30, 2018

Luisa Santos

The first biennial Cultural Literacy in Europe Conference took place in London in April 2015; the second in Warsaw in 2017. We are now pleased to announce the Call for Papers for the third Biennial Conference, to be held at the Universidade Católica Portuguesa (Lisbon) in May 2019.

This Conference will address modes of conviviality that cultures may have resisted, promoted or facilitated down the ages and especially in the present. It will reflect upon the role and effects of cultural literacy in different media, in the shaping of today's politics and global economy. As a potent tool for spreading ideas and ideologies, cultural literacy helps shape world-views and social attitudes in indelible ways that need further investigation.

You are invited to submit a proposal for a 20-minute paper (or for a panel of three 20-minute papers) on any area of the conference topic. Proposals should consist of: title, an abstract (max. 300 words), a mini-biography (max 100 words), plus your name, affiliation and email address. Send this to mlopes@fch.lisboa.ucp and n.segal@bbk.ac.uk by the deadline of Wednesday 30 November 2018.

PAPERS ON ANY OF THE FOLLOWING – OR ALLIED – TOPICS ARE WELCOME

- Art in conflict/ conflict solving
