

Midwest Art History Society 2019 Annual Conference (Cincinnati, 21-23 Mar 19)

Cincinnati, Ohio, Mar 21-23, 2019

Deadline: Dec 14, 2018

Scott Sherer, University of Texas at San Antonio

The Midwest Art History Society (MAHS) will hold its 46th Annual Conference in Cincinnati, Ohio from March 21-23, 2019, with sessions hosted by the Cincinnati Art Museum (CAM) and Taft Museum of Art and with a reception hosted by the Contemporary Arts Center.

Deadline to submit abstracts for papers to session chairs is December 14, 2018.

This year's keynote lecture will be given by Dr. S. Hollis Clayson, Bergen Evans Professor in the Humanities at Northwestern University, in association with CAM's exhibition Paris 1900: City of Entertainment.

Special behind-the-scenes programs at partner museums will make this conference a particularly memorable experience, including tours of the newly renovated Union Terminal, an iconic Art Deco train station now home to the Cincinnati Museum Center.
