LSU, Baton Rouge, Louisiana, US, Aug 15, 2019

Application deadline: Feb 10, 2019

Ludovico Geymonat

Tenure-track Assistant Professor in History of Contemporary Art

Louisiana State University School of Art invites applications for a tenure-track assistant professor position in art history with a specialization in Contemporary Art. Candidates should have a demonstrated record of research in any field of art since 1960. Applicants must hold a Ph.D. in art history, have experience teaching at the college level and be willing to serve on M.A and M.F.A. thesis committees.

Applicants should provide a cover letter with a narrative description of background and research interests. Describe courses you are qualified to teach and characterize your research plans and experience. Applications should include CV (with e-mail address), list of publications, teaching history and a sample of recent scholarship, as well as the names, addresses, telephone numbers and e-mail addresses of three referees. The above information should be posted in one comprehensive PDF file to the university's online application portal (under the Resume/CV section).

We strongly encourage women and candidates from underrepresented minorities to apply. LSU is committed to diversity and is an equal opportunity/equal access employer.
