

Session at SCSC 2019 (St. Louis, 17-20 Oct 19)

St Louis, Oct 17-20, 2019

Deadline: Mar 25, 2019

Stephanie Porras, TULANE UNIVERSITY

The Sixteenth-Century Society and Conference (SCSC) is now accepting proposals for individual papers and complete panels for its 2019 annual conference, to be held October 17-20, 2019 in St. Louis.

As an affiliated society of SCSC, HNA is entitled to propose up to three sessions of four papers each, or roundtables of 4 to 5 speakers. These can be linked or each devoted to a different topic. I am writing to solicit your proposals for session topics or for individual 20-minute papers.

As always, please be advised that all participants in the SCSC conference are responsible for their own costs associated with travel, lodging, and registration, and must become members of the Sixteenth-Century Society. Participants in an HNA-sponsored panel should also be members of HNA.

If you prefer to submit a proposal directly to SCSC, instructions can be found on the society's website: <https://www.sixteenthcentury.org>

If you would like to organize a session, chair a session composed of individual papers submitted to me, propose a paper, or participate in a roundtable sponsored by HNA, please send a proposal of no more than 250 words and a CV to: sporras@tulane.edu no later than March 25.
