SmartArt – Art and Science Applied “From Inspiration to Interaction”

The Faculty of Applied Arts, University of Arts in Belgrade, is pleased to announce its first international conference SmartArt – Art and Science Applied: “From Inspiration to Interaction”. The main idea behind the conference is to provide an international forum for the exchange of ideas and experiences originating in the intersection of applied art and science.

This year's theme of the conference “From Inspiration to Interaction” is based on the interdisciplinary and transdisciplinary connections between applied art, social sciences & humanities, technical-technological sciences, as well as other applied sciences influencing applied art. The conference focuses on all aspects of mutual inspiration and interaction between science and fields of applied art: Animation, Ceramic Art and Design, Costume Design, Fashion Design, Graphic Design, Illustration, Industrial Design, Interior & Furniture Design, Painting, Photography, Printmaking, Sculpture, Scenography, Film and TV Production Design, Textile Design, Urban Design, and other, including the interaction between science and art in Conservation & Restoration.

We invite proposals for papers within the following thematic fields:

- History and Theory of Applied Arts
- Protection of Cultural Heritage
- Applied Art and Digital Technologies
- Applied Geometry in Visual Arts
- New Materials and Technologies in Applied Arts
- Terminological Challenges in Applied Arts
- Educational Aspects of Applied Arts
- and other concepts and perspectives in collaborative practice of applied arts and sciences

Extended abstracts can be submitted either in English or Serbian (in Cyrillic).

Conference participants are advised to prepare their presentations in English.

At the conference, each paper will be allotted approximately 20 minutes, including time for discussion.
