

Postdoctoral Research Associate, Brno

Masaryk University, Brno, Jun 1, 2019–Dec 31, 2023

Application deadline: May 7, 2019

Matthew Rampley

Job description:

The Department of Art History invites applications for a postdoctoral research associate to work with the research project Continuity and Rupture in the Art and Architecture of Central Europe, 1918-1939, funded by the European Research Council (<https://craace.com>).

Based at Masaryk University, Brno, the research associate position is a full-time appointment, initially for 3 years but renewable up to December 2023. The successful applicant will take up the position in June 2019 or as soon as possible thereafter.

The project consists of a comparative analysis of the art and architecture of interwar Austria, Czechoslovakia and Hungary. The project team is looking in particular for a researcher with a specialism in Gender and Sexuality in order to develop this as an additional project theme

Main Duties :

- 1) To undertake research necessary for the successful completion of the project Continuity or Rupture? Art and Architecture in Central Europe, 1918-1939
- 2) To be responsible for a programme of research activities and publications linked to the theme of sexuality and gender in twentieth-century central European art.
- 3) To collect and analyse research data through the collation of primary visual, textual and archival sources as well as secondary literature
- 4) To disseminate research findings through publication (e.g. articles, exhibitions, presentation of papers at research seminars, symposia etc)
- 5) To assist in the management and administration of the project, including management of the project website
- 6) To contribute to research-related activities and research-related administration in the Department of Art History

Applicants should submit:

- 1) CV
- 2) Covering letter explaining your interest in the position

3) Degree documents

4) Publication list

Application deadline: May 7, 2019

For an informal discussion about the position and the project, including the specific theme, applicants are invited to contact the project leader, Matthew Rampley (rampley@phil.muni.cz)
