

Editorial Traineeship (Art) / Volontariatstelle, Taschen Verlag, Cologne

Taschen GmbH, Cologne, May 1, 2019–Apr 24, 2020

Application deadline: May 19, 2019

TASCHEN GmbH

We are seeking an Editorial Intern (Art) for our headquarters in Cologne, for a year-long contract to begin immediately.

Our Art program comprises a wide field of art publications: monographs on major artists as well as volumes dedicated to specific periods, artistic movements and themes.

Key responsibilities:

- Coordination of titles in multiple language from conception to printing
- Communication with international authors, translators, free lancers as well as museums and photo agencies
- Evaluation and editing of texts
- Obtaining and clearing rights for images
- Research and proof-reading

Your profile:

- Completed degree in art history or the humanities
- Fluent in German and English, with a working knowledge of another foreign language
- A strong affinity for visual arts and the written word
- Confidence and feel for style when dealing with texts and translations
- Academic research skills and detail oriented work ethic
- Enthusiasm and openness for subjects from different time periods and fields of study
- Excellent computer literacy (Mac and the relevant applications; MS Office, Acrobat)
- Independent, structured and team oriented approach to work
- Previous publishing experience a plus

We offer:

- Wide-ranging projects in a creative, professional working environment with plenty of room to develop your own ideas
- An open business culture with a flat organizational structure and rapid decision-making processes

Interested? Then we look forward to hearing from you! Please e-mail your application, including your earliest possible start date to: TASCHEN GmbH, Iris Päßgen, i.paeffgen@taschen.com

Reference:

JOB: Editorial Traineeship (Art) / Volontariatsstelle, Taschen Verlag, Cologne. In: ArtHist.net, Apr 25, 2019
(accessed Jul 13, 2025), <<https://arthist.net/archive/20717>>.