

THE NAKED FORM IN CHINESE ART (OXFORD, 22 MAY 19)

Ashmolean Museum, Beaumont Street, Oxford, May 22, 2019

Symposium - The Naked Form in Chinese Art

11 - 4.30pm, Lecture Theatre, Ashmolean Museum Oxford with Qu Leilei (artist), Dr Yu-ping Luk (British Museum), Dr Katie Hill (Sotheby's Institution), Wang Di (University of Oxford) and Dr Paul Bevan (Ashmolean).

Join experts in the field of Chinese art for a selection of talks on the subject of the naked form in Chinese art. The subject will be explored from a variety of angles, including: reception by the public, press and academia; the variety of styles in which artists worked; and developments in recent times. The symposium is linked to the ongoing exhibition "The Naked Form in Modern Chinese Art" on view at the Ashmolean until the 15th of September.
