

Journal of Surrealism and the Americas, Vol.10, No.1 (2019)

Claudia Mesch, Arizona State University

The Journal of Surrealism and the Americas has published a Special Issue on Max Ernst, edited by Samantha Kavky.

It can be accessed at: jsa.asu.edu

Feature articles and reviews can be accessed free of charge on the JSA website.

Journal of Surrealism and the Americas 10:1 (2019)

Table of Contents

Feature Articles

Introduction to the Special Issue on Max Ernst

Samantha Kavky

Napoleon in the Wilderness: The Transmogrification of a Picture by Max Ernst

Martin Schieder

Max Ernst and the Aesthetic of Commercial Tourism: Max Among Some of His Favorite Dolls

Carolyn Winnifred Butler Palmer

Arizona Dream: Maxime Rossi Meets Max Ernst

Julia Drost

Glowing Like Phosphorus: Dorothea Tanning and the Sedona Western

Catriona McAra

Seeing Through an (American) Temperament: Max Ernst's Microbes, 1946-1953

Danielle Johnson

Conference and Exhibition Reviews by: Kristen Strange, Jennifer R. Cohen, and Claudia Mesch

All past JSA issues (2007-2017) are available free of charge to readers via the Arizona State University Digital Repository: <https://repository.asu.edu/>.

--

Claudia Mesch

Professor, Art History

Arizona State University

900 S. Forest Avenue

Tempe, AZ 85287-1505

USA

(480) 965-8864

claudia.mesch@asu.edu

Reference:

TOC: Journal of Surrealism and the Americas, Vol.10, No.1 (2019). In: ArtHist.net, Jun 20, 2019 (accessed Apr 2, 2026), <<https://arthist.net/archive/21113>>.