Vesper. Journal of Architecture, Arts & Theory - No. 1 Supervenice

Vesper Journal

We are glad to announce that “Supervenice” the first issue of Vesper. Journal of Architecture, Arts & Theory is now available. Vesper is a multidisciplinary and bilingual (Italian and English) scientific journal edited by Iuav University of Venice in the frame of the research infrastructure Ir.Ide – Integral Design Environment, in collaboration with Quodlibet publishing. Vesper revives the tradition of Italian journals on paper, by hosting a wide spectrum of narratives, welcoming different writings and styles, privileging the visual intelligence of design, of graphic expression, of images and contaminations between different languages.
