

9TH INT. CONFERENCE ON THE HISTORIES OF MEDIA ART, SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

Deadline: Dec 1, 2020

Call for Proposals to host the 9th International Conference on the Histories of Media Art, Science and Technology: Re: 2022

The Media Art Histories Board invites applications to host the 9th International Conference on the Histories of Media Art, Science and Technology.

The international conference series, which was inaugurated in 2005 in Banff, Canada, has since been held in several international venues around the globe including Berlin in 2007, Melbourne 2009, Liverpool 2011, Riga 2013, Montreal 2015, Kress/Vienna 2017, and Aalborg 2019. A significant MediaArtHistories stream will be held in Brazil at CIHA in 2021 and the call for proposals to host the 9th international conference is open until Dec 1, 2020. The conference series aims to engage the growing community of scholars from a range of disciplines including art history, contemporary art practice, art theory, history of science, history of technology, science and technology studies, media studies, image science, visual studies, philosophy, cultural studies, anthropology, architecture theory, sound studies, computer science among others to develop and share new research and scholarship in the intersecting fields of the histories of media art, science and technology. The host of the conference in 2022 will have the opportunity to continue to build on the impressive history of the conference series. Proposals with inventive solutions for ecological sustainability, engaging digital participation, and quality presence from the Global South & North are highly encouraged.
