

Post-Doctoral Fellow in Israel Studies (Brandeis University)

Brandeis University, Schusterman Center for Israel Studies

Application deadline: Jan 15, 2012

Keren Goodblatt

Brandeis University

Post-Doctoral Fellowship in Israel Studies 2012-2013

The Schusterman Center for Israel Studies at Brandeis University invites applications for the position of post-doctoral fellow during the academic year of 2012-2013.

The successful candidate will teach one course per semester in Israel Studies, related to programs in Near Eastern and Judaic Studies, Israeli arts and culture, politics, sociology, economics, or other relevant disciplines. PhD must be in hand by September 1st, 2012 with no exceptions, and may not have been received before 2007.

The fellow will be expected to be in residence at Brandeis, to participate actively in the intellectual life of the Schusterman Center for Israel Studies, and to present at least one public lecture. There may be also an opportunity for participation in the Brandeis University Summer Institute for Israel Studies. The annual stipend will be $50,000 and is benefits-eligible. The fellowship may be renewable for a second year.

Apply online at

<http://www.brandeis.edu/israelcenter/support/postdoctoral.html>

Candidates should upload a cover letter, CV, project proposal, abstract of their PhD and a list and description of proposed courses. Priority will be given to applications received by January 15th, 2012.

Separately, two letters of support should be sent via email to Anina Selve at aselve@brandeis.edu. These may be emailed as PDFs. If email is not available, have your recommenders use the following postal address: Schusterman Center for Israel Studies, re: Post-doc position, Brandeis University MS 060, 415 South St., Waltham, MA 02454.

Contact aselve@brandeis.edu or 781-736-2154 with further questions.

Reference:

JOB: Post-Doctoral Fellow in Israel Studies (Brandeis University). In: ArtHist.net, Dec 8, 2011 (accessed Jul 6, 2025), <<https://arthist.net/archive/2383>>.