

Book/Dissertation Prizes (The Historical Society)

The Historical Society

Below is a message we would like posted to H-ArtHist. Please let me know if you have any questions--

Best,

Joseph Lucas
Assistant Director
The Historical Society
Boston, MA
www.bu.edu/historic

The Historical Society
2002 Book/Dissertation Prizes

Prizes will be awarded at The Historical Society's national meeting in Atlanta, Georgia, May 16-18, 2002

The Eugene Genovese Best Book in American History Prize

A prize of $5,000 (US) named after Eugene Genovese, distinguished historian of the American South, will be awarded for the best book by a member of the Society on any subject relating to American history. To be considered, the book must have been published between January 2000 and December 2001. Candidates should send six copies of the book to:

Robert Paquette, Chair
Eugene Genovese Prize Committee
656 Beacon Street, Mezzanine
Boston, MA 02215-2010

The Donald Kagan Best Book in European History Prize

A prize of $5,000 (US) named after Donald Kagan, one of the most eminent historians of Ancient Greece, will be awarded for the best book by a member of the Society on any subject relating to European history. To be considered, the book must have been published between January 2000 and December 2001. Candidates should send six copies of the book to:

Marc Trachtenberg, Chair
Donald Kagan Prize Committee
656 Beacon Street, Mezzanine
Boston, MA 02215-2010

The Pauline Maier Best Dissertation in American History Prize

A prize of $1,000 (US) named after Pauline Maier, one of the most outstanding practitioners of American history, will be awarded for the best doctoral dissertation by a member of the Society on any subject relating to American history. To be considered, dissertations should have been submitted between January 2000 and December 2001. Candidates should send six copies of a ten-page abstract accompanied by a short bibliography to:

David L. Carlton, Chair
Pauline Maier Prize Committee
656 Beacon Street, Mezzanine
Boston, MA 02215-2010

The Theodore S. Hamerow Best Dissertation in European History Prize

A prize of $1,000 (US) named after Theodore Hamerow, prominent historian of 19th and 20th century Germany, will be awarded for the best doctoral dissertation by a member of the Society on any subject relating to European history. To be considered, dissertations should have been submitted between January 2000 and December 2001. Candidates should send six copies of a ten-page abstract accompanied by a short bibliography to:

Henry C. Clark, Chair
Theodore Hamerow Prize Committee
656 Beacon Street, Mezzanine
Boston, MA 02215-2010

Submissions should arrive no later than December 31, 2001. For more information please visit our website at www.bu.edu/historic

Reference:

ANN: Book/Dissertation Prizes (The Historical Society). In: ArtHist.net, Aug 2, 2001 (accessed May 15, 2026), <<https://arthist.net/archive/24583>>.