2.) Charlotte W. Newcombe Doctoral Dissertation Fellowships Deadline: 11/19/2001; 12/3/2001

Charlotte W. Newcombe Doctoral Dissertation Fellowships are designed to encourage original and significant study of ethical or religious values in all fields of the humanities and social sciences. In addition to topics in religious studies or in ethics (philosophical or religious), dissertations might consider the ethical implications of foreign policy, the values influencing political decisions, the moral codes of other cultures, and religious or ethical issues reflected in history or literature.

Winners will receive $16,500 for 12 months of full-time dissertation writing. Approximately 35 non-renewable fellowships will be awarded from among more than 400 applications. Graduate schools will be asked to waive tuition for Newcombe Fellows.

All applications and proposals must be postmarked by December 3, 2001. Applications being mailed from outside the United States or Canada must be postmarked by November 19, 2001. Notification of awards will be made in April, 2002. Tenure begins in June or September, 2002.
