

Correction: Architectural History Postion (1)

Alan Wallach

Please note that the job is at the College of William and Mary (the name omitted from the previous posting) and that the excluded fields are medieval and Colonial American.

Alan Wallach, The College of William and Mary

ARCHITECTURAL HISTORIAN

Tenure Track. Assistant Professor. Specialist in any field of architectural history except medieval and Colonial American to teach courses in architectural history, the first half of the art history survey (ancient through medieval), methods of art history, and possibly honors projects. Phd required or expected by August 2002. Send letter of application, CV, statement of research interests, statement of teaching philosophy, and three letters of reference by 15 January 2002 to: Search Committee, Department of Art and Art History, The College of William and Mary, PO Box 8795, Williamsburg, Va. 23187-8795. EOE/AA/WMA/AC-INT.

Reference:

JOB: Correction: Architectural History Postion (1). In: ArtHist.net, Dec 13, 2001 (accessed May 12, 2025), <<https://arthist.net/archive/24761>>.