The Doctoral Program in Architecture & Technology is oriented toward the training of scholars in the field of science and technology in architecture, with a focus on architecture, building engineering and technology. We are offering

2 positions for Doctoral students in Architecture & Technology

We are looking for young researchers with a background in engineering and technology, as well as architects with experience in research and with an interest in relating building technology or engineering to the building practice. Suitable candidates hold a diploma or a Master's degree acquired at university level in architecture, engineering or related fields.

The selected candidates will be enrolled at ETH Zurich. The positions start on October 1, 2012.

Applicants should include (1) a letter of motivation, stating their future career intentions, reasons for wanting to pursue a Doctorate in Architecture & Technology at ETH Zurich, arguments why they would be a good candidate and how their background has prepared them for doctoral studies; and (2) a (maximum) three-page research statement, indicating their main research field(s) or topic(s) of interest and preferred Professorship at ITA. Please, check the website of D-ARCH's Institute of Technology in Architecture (<http://ita.arch.ethz.ch>) to find more information on the different Professorships of ITA and their respective research focuses, expertise and activities. Additionally, applicants are requested to send an (academic) curriculum vitae including publications, a portfolio or related work samples and 3 letters of recommendation.

The submission deadline is March 15, 2012.

For further information please visit our website <http://ita.arch.ethz.ch> or contact ita [at] arch.ethz.ch (no applications).
