

tenure track, any level, art history 19th/20th century (Hebr. Univ. Jerusalem)

Application deadline: Feb 16, 2012

Luba Freedman, Jerusalem

Dear List,

please note the announcement issued from the Faculty of the Humanities. It concerns the position of a modernist in the history of art (from 1800 to 2000). We would appreciate it if you forward this announcement to the potential candidates.

THE HEBREW UNIVERSITY, JERUSALEM, ISRAEL. Tenure-track, any level, subject to final approval by the administration, beginning fall 2012, but possibly later; Usual: teaching, supervising, and administrative duties. AOS: Open.

PhD prior to application. For further details, see

<http://www.hum.huji.ac.il/english/> Or write to limorp@savion.huji.ac.il

Teaching in Hebrew, but first few years can be taught in English.

Please note deadline: February 16, 2012.

Reference:

JOB: tenure track, any level, art history 19th/20th century (Hebr. Univ. Jerusalem). In: ArtHist.net, Jan 6, 2012 (accessed Jul 5, 2025), <<https://arthist.net/archive/2498>>.