

"Landscapes in Time", SAH Landscape History Chapter (Detroit, 18 Apr 2012)

Detroit, USA, Apr 18, 2012

Sonja Duempelmann

LANDSCAPES IN TIME

Please join the SAH Landscape History Chapter's 2nd Symposium

18 April 2012 (before the main SAH conference)

9:00 to 17:00

Westin Book Cadillac Hotel

1114 Washington Blvd Detroit, MI 48226

$50 per person (includes coffee and lunch)

PURCHASE TICKETS AT <http://www.brownpapertickets.com/event/199890>

SPEAKERS:

Anita Berrizbeitia, Harvard University

Deep Time Made Visible: Charles Eliot and the Metropolitan Park System, Boston (1892-93)

Margot K. Lystra, Cornell University

Models and Scores: Interdisciplinarity and Conceptions of Time in the 1960's-70's

D. Fairchild Ruggles, University of Illinois

The Alhambra's Court of the Lions: From Islamic Palace to Spanish Patrimony

Stephen Whiteman, Middlebury College

From Traveling Palace to Mountain Estate: Recovering Historical Narratives in Qing Imperial Landscape Architecture

Nurit Lissovsky, Technion-Israel Institute of Technology

The Gospel Trail' in the Galilee: Journey through Time and Place

Elizabeth Kryder-Reid, Indiana University Indianapolis

Marking Time: The Perception and Representation of Time in California Mission Gardens

Robert E. Grese, University of Michigan

Time and Change in the Landscapes of Jens Jensen

Kathleen John-Alder, Rutgers University

Processing Natural Time: Lawrence Halprin and The Sea Ranch Ecoscore

Nora Wendl, Portland State University, and Michael R. Allen, Preservation Research Office, St. Louis

After Pruitt-Igoe: Narratives of an Urban Forest as Cultural Resource

Janike Kampevoid Larsen, Oslo School of Architecture and Design Geologic Presence in a 21st-Century Wilderness Garden

Moderators:

Susan Herrington, President

Sonja Duempelmann, Vice President

Reference:

CONF: "Landscapes in Time", SAH Landscape History Chapter (Detroit, 18 Apr 2012). In: ArtHist.net, Jan 7, 2012 (accessed May 21, 2022), <<https://arthist.net/archive/2503>>.