

Ines de Barcy (France, fl. c. 1890-1930)

Q: Ines de Barcy

Can anybody kindly direct me to sources about this French painter, fl. c. 1890-1930? A websearch yielded no results. A colleague in the National Library of Ireland has come across a portrait by her dated 1918 and bearing some resemblance to Oscar Wilde (d.1900) but he oto has found out no more than she did occasionally exhibit in the 1920s. I am interested in the fin-de-siecle painters and their interaction. If de Barcy was painting Wilde from memory, this would account for the likeness not being entirely convincing, but who else she did paint from that milieu?

David Rose

--

D.C. Rose

Editor, THE OSCHOLARS

Department of English / Centre for Irish Studies

Goldsmiths College

University of London

<http://homepages.gold.ac.uk/oscholars>

oscholars@netscape.net

--

Reference:

Q: Ines de Barcy (France, fl. c. 1890-1930). In: ArtHist.net, Jul 26, 2002 (accessed Mar 16, 2026), <<https://arthist.net/archive/25103>>.