CALL FOR PAPERS

Annual Congress of the Social Sciences and Humanities
Late May 2003
Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada

Session:

After Genocide: Trauma, Memory, and Forgiving

The impact of genocide reverberates long after the tragic event. The profound experience of trauma, both personal and collective, can manifest itself in a variety of ways, including its representations in literature and art. Although we usually focus on individual or national memory of the victim group, perpetrators and perpetrator nations often try to deal with genocide too. This may take the form of expressions of recognition, contrition, pleas for forgiveness, or various ways of reconstituting memory.

We invite panel submissions that deal with these post-genocide topics from a feminist and/or socialist perspective.

Our panel will be co-sponsored by the Society for Socialist Studies & the Canadian Sociology Anthropology Association (and possibly by the Canadian Women's Studies Association).

The deadline for the submission of abstracts is 1 October 2002.
