The MW2003 Preliminary Program is now available.

Join us at the seventh annual Museums and the Web conference - the premier international venue to review the state of the Web in arts, culture, and heritage. The MW2003 program will Web-related issues for museums, archives, libraries and other cultural institutions. If you are working with the Web in these areas plan to join us.

The formal program of Museums and the Web 2003 consists of two plenary sessions, eighteen parallel sessions, 60 museum project demonstrations, dozens of commercial exhibits, seven full-day and 6 half-day pre-conference workshops, and ten one-hour mini-workshops combined with a day-long usability lab, a day-long design "Crit Room", and the Best of the Web awards.

The informal program involves full-day pre-conference tours, evening receptions each night of the meeting, a dozen Birds-of-a-Feather breakfast meetings, and hours of discovery and debate with hundreds of colleagues from more that 35 countries.

All papers presented at MW2003 are peer reviewed. Full session
